APRIL 8, 2019

1. CALL TO ORDER

The meeting of the Police Commission was called to order by Chairman Cosgrove, at 7:00 pm in the Police Department Training Room of the Simsbury Town Offices. Present were Commissioner Michael Long, Commissioner Terry Fogarty, Chief Nicholas Boulter, and Lt. Thomas Sheehan.

3. CORRESPONDENCE

Commissioner Fogarty read the summary of letters received since the last meeting of the Commission on March 11, 2019.

4. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

After a motion was made by Commissioner Fleming and seconded by Commissioner Fogarty, it was unanimously:

VOTED: To approve the minutes of the March 11, 2019 Meeting.

5. PUBLIC AUDIENCE

Joan Coe, 26 Whitcomb Dr, attended the February 11, 2019 Board of Selectman meeting where it was voted to charge to the town sponsored rate for private duty police officers at the Simsbury Meadows Performing Art Center. She believes this is wrong since they are a private organization. She believes this reduces police department revenue and causes the taxpayers to help a private business. Ms. Coe also expressed that the overtime budget for the police department should not be reduced but increased and any amount not used in the fiscal year should be returned to the general fund. Overtime is needed for proper training and to protect the town.

6. OLD BUSINESS

From Chief Boulter:

- In overtime year to year the non-supervisory shifts are down 36%, supervisory shifts are up 14% due to vacations and dispatch is down 8%.
- Currently 2 officers are in the academy and 2 are still out on injury. Overall sick leave is up from last year.
- Overtime is projected to be over budget by $25,000 at end of fiscal year which will be covered by vacancy salaries from the beginning of the year.
- The only change to the proposed budget from the last meeting is that the annual vehicle purchases will be added to the operating budget instead of a capital non-reoccurring request. The budget will be reviewed at the April 23, 2019 Board of Finance meeting.
