

Value Statement for the Simsbury Police Department

We the members of the Simsbury Police Department regard our profession with great pride.
As such we proudly declare the following:

As Public Servants...

We shall preserve and advance the principles of democracy and freedom in our society.
We will be accountable to higher authority and the community we serve.

As Members of the Police Department...

We aspire to professionalism in all aspects of our operations.
We shall maintain the highest levels of integrity.
We shall treat each other with mutual respect, trust, fairness, and dignity, as we strive to accomplish the police department's mission.

In Service to the Town of Simsbury, Connecticut...

We are committed to fair and impartial enforcement of the laws and ordinances, reduction of fear, prevention of crime, tireless pursuit of offenders, and compassionate aid to victims of crime and misfortune.

We are committed to community policing and we care about the citizenship of the Town of Simsbury.
