Press Release

Simsbury, CT March 9, 2011

A team of assessors from the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) will be in Simsbury April 16 - 19, 2011 to examine all aspects of the Simsbury Police Department policies and procedures, management, operations, and support services.

Verification by the team that the Simsbury Police Department meets the Commission's state-of-the-art standards is part of a voluntary process to gain initial accreditation, a highly prized recognition of law enforcement professional excellence.

As a part of the on-site assessment, agency employees and members of the community are invited to offer comments directly to assessors at a public information session on Monday April 18, 2011 at 4:30 p.m. The session will be conducted in the Main Meeting Room at the Simsbury Town Offices located at 933 Hopmeadow Street in Simsbury, CT. Persons may also reach assessors by phone on Monday April 18th from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at (860) 658-3158 or write to CALEA at 13575 Heathcote Boulevard, Suite 320, Gainesville, Virginia, 20155.

Questions regarding the accreditation process may be directed to the Simsbury Police Department's Accreditation Manager, Lt. Nicholas Boulter at (860) 658-3106.
