Suspicious Vehicle/Activity

The Simsbury Police Department is currently investigating an incident that occurred on May 4, 2009 near Latimer Lane Elementary School in Simsbury. Around 4:30 PM, a large, beige, sports utility vehicle (4 doors) approached two young girls standing near the edge of the road on Latimer Lane. The vehicle stopped within a few feet of the girls and the male driver attempted to entice the young girls toward his vehicle by telling them that he had a gift for them. The young girls screamed and the vehicle drove away.

The driver was a white male, dark short hair and he was wearing a black shirt.

If you have any information about this occurrence or a similar occurrence, please contact the Simsbury Police Department at (860) 658-3100.
