Citizen Service Awards – Lynn Veith

Ms. Veith distributed the nomination letters and applications for the Senior Services Award. She asked commission members to distribute these forms. The award will be presented at a Board of selectman meeting in either April or May.

SUB COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Accessibility – Mike Jennings

Gerry Toner invited commission members to visit Simsbury Farms in December to tour the facility. A proposal for capital improvement to renovate the Farms, including accessibility will go to referendum this spring. In 2008, a Civil Rights Compliance review was completed at Simsbury HS and Memorial Park. Issues were identified at Memorial Park and they are being addressed. Other issues at the HS were completed in 2008, including handicapped parking.

Mr. Jennings made a spread sheet of the town buildings that need to be inspected for ADA compliance. He also distributed a checklist to be completed. Commissioners will contact Mr. Jennings if they wish to evaluate a specific place.

More specific detail of past and current evaluations in progress will be added.

Senior/Community Center Assessment – Mona Martinik

The Eno Memorial Hall Craft Room updates (chairs and flooring) are still in process. Three raised toilet seats have been identified as needed for the bathrooms. No changes have been made in the kitchen at this time. Ms. Martinik will follow-up. There is a new floor in the meeting room.

Ms. Martinik has started a list of Friends of the Senior Center to raise money for the current and future needs for the Senior Center.

Mr. LaMontagne shared a Request for Qualifications, which has been sent out to qualifying groups to develop a needs assessment and evaluation of Eno Memorial Hall. A final selection has not been made at this time.

Public Relations – Carrie Kramer

Ms. Kramer reported on the subcommittee plans. A monthly timeline was established regarding awards. The business award will not be connected to the Chamber of Commerce. All mailings/correspondence should go to a central location (town P.O. Box). SCTV should be utilized on a scheduled basis for commission activities.

Mr. LaMontagne appointed Mr. Bible as the new chair of the Public Relations subcommittee. Ms Kramer will remain on the committee.
