Press Release

Simsbury, CT September 20, 2012

On Wednesday September 19, 2012, at 8:25 PM the Simsbury Police Department received a 911 cell phone call from a female at 51 Hopmeadow Street Apartment 2A2. She said that her boyfriend was holding a gun at her, threatening to shoot her and him. Officers were dispatched to the apartment within 24 seconds of receiving the 911 call. The sound of several gunshots was heard by the dispatcher.

The first Simsbury officer arrived on scene within 30 seconds of being dispatched. Officers from Avon and Simsbury assembled and attempted to make contact with the occupants of the apartment. They were unable to make contact with any occupants, but they heard the sound of a crying baby inside. Officers forced entry into the apartment and located two deceased adults as well as a toddler who was uninjured.

The Connecticut State Police Major Crime Unit assisted with the investigation. The cause of death has not yet been officially determined and is still under investigation.
