Agriculture is also supported by the Simsbury Grange, and its Annual Agricultural Fair in September. New members are welcome, including the Junior Grange for boys and girls ages 5-14. Visit www.simsburygrange.org or email info@simsburygrange.org for more information.

Simsbury offers visitors a wide variety of places to see and things to do. Downtown, listen to the Cell Phone Audio Tour, or visit the Historical Society's complex on Hopmeadow Street featuring the Phelps Tavern Museum and 300 years of Simsbury's history. Borrow a Simsbury FreeBike and head to the nearby East Coast Greenway and many miles of hiking trails that keep cyclists, hikers and walkers busy; the Farmington River supports canoeing, kayaking and rowing. The Old Drake Hill Flower Bridge provides a peaceful oasis. In addition there are both state and local parks, public and private golf courses and the International Skating Center. Simsbury is even home to the largest tree in Connecticut, the 300 year old Pinchot sycamore tree.

Cultural events range from community festivals such as the Simsbury Fly In, the Arts and Crafts Festival, Septemberfest, and Simsbury Celebrates! at holiday time, to the Talcott Mountain Music Festival featuring the Hartford Symphony Orchestra at the Simsbury Performing Arts Center, its summer home. For information on these and other activities, visit www.simsbury-ct.gov and click on the link for Tourism; or visit the Simsbury Tourism page on Facebook.
