

A Program on Issues Facing the LGBTQ Community

Join us as our presenter discusses a range of sexual and gender minority youth issues and services in Connecticut. In addition, information on such topics as risk and protective factors, talking with children about gender, impact of family response, will be discussed.

Presented by Kamora Herrington, Mentoring Program Coordinator for True Colors, Inc., a support and advocacy organization for sexual minority youth based in Hartford, Connecticut. Ms. Herrington has over 20 years of experience in the human services field and has become a vocal advocate for LGBTQ youth.
